wards, believing, at the time, that the discount offered would have been a sufficient inducement; but we find the move to have been a very unpopular one with many of our most valuable customers, they considering it a very great convenience to have an account where they could send for or pur-chase what they wished; and as we do not feel that we can afford to loose the patronage of such as have always sustained us heretofore, besides de-priving ourselves of the pleasure of doing business. ith them, we have determined to again open our books to such as have always paid us when their bills were presented, and hope all such will appreciate this public announcement, as we would not make it, only that we publicly declined to continue any accounts, and as we do not approve of publishing one thing and doing another, we have thought it due our prompt customers, in making the change, to publish this statement. We shall, however, continue to allow the discount on all purchases of $10 and upwards if paid for at the time of purchase, and would respectfully solicit all who prefer to buy for cash, to examine our stock, which is now very large, and having purchased most of our goods this season at the New York and Philadelphia auction sales, we know that we have one of the largest and cheapest stocks of GOODS in the District. MISCELLANEOUS READING. DR. HOLMES' LAST POEM, 'THE BOYS.' The following lines by Dr. Holmes, appear in the Atlantic Monthly. They were written, it is said, for a recent festive gathering of his old classmates -- "the boys" of Harvard College: THE BOYS.

Has there any old fellow got mixed with the boys? It there has, take him out without making a noise. Hang the Almanac's chest and the Catalogue's spite!

Old Time is a liar! We're twenty to night! We're twenty! We're twenty! Who says we are He's tipsy, young Jackanapes!-show him the "Gray temples at twenty?" Yes! white, if we please;

Where the snow-flakes fall thickest there's nothing can freeze! Was it snow I spoke of? Excuse the mistake Look close-you will not see a sign of a flake; We want some new garlands for those we have shed-And these are white roses in place of the red! We've a trick, we young fellows, you may have been told. Of talking (in public) as if we were old; That boy we call 'Doctor,' and this we call 'Judge': It's a neat little fiction,—of course it's all fudge. That fellow's the "Speaker,"-the one on the right: "Mr. Mayor," my young one, how are you to night? That's our "Member of Congress," we say when we chaff: There's the "Reverend,"—What's his name—don't make me laugh!

That boy with the grave mathematical look Made believe he had written a wonderful book, And the ROYAL ACADEMY thought it was true! So they chose him right in; a good joke it was, too! There's a boy-we pretend-with a three-decker brain.

That could harness a team with a logical chain When he spoke for our manhood in syllabled fire, We called him "The Justice," but now he's "The Squire." And there's a nice youngster of excellent pith,-Fate tried to conceal him by naming him Smith,-

-Just read on his medal,-"My country,"-"of You hear that boy laughing?-you think he's all fun,—
But the angels lough too, at the good he has done; The children laugh loud as they troop to his call And the poor man who knows him laughs loudest

But he shouted a song for the brave and the free,-

Yes, we're bays,-always playing with tongue or with pen,-And I semetimes have asked-Shall we ever be Shall we always be youthful and laughing and gay,

Till the last dear companion drops smiling away

Then here's to our boyhood, its gold and its gray!

And when we have done with our life-lasting toys, Dear Father, take care of thy children, the Boys PIANOS LARGEST ASSORTMENT OF PIANOS IN THE COUNTRY. GOLD MEDALS
